LR 19

SENATOR CHAMBERS: I am not going to take much more time on this particular point because I have in the record what I want in the record on this point, but I hope that you will vote in favor of this amendment and, again, there is no way to know with certitude what somebody else will do with whatever it is that you teach them. So I am asking that you adopt this amendment.

PRESIDENT: The motion is the adoption of the Chambers amendment to LB 772. All those in favor vote aye, opposed vote nay. Vote aye or nay on the Chambers amendment to LB 772. May we have the attention of the membership, please, to the item on the floor. We are voting aye or nay on the Chambers amendment to LB 772. The Chair will allow 30 seconds for the recording of the vote. The motion is the adoption of the Chambers amendment. Fifteen seconds. Have you all voted? Record the vote, Mr. Clerk. Record vote.

CLERK: (Read record vote. See pages 740-41 of the Legislative Journal.) 7 ayes, 13 nays, Mr. President, on adoption of the amendment.
